MAYESVILLE EAGLES MAY BUY A HOME IN IMMEDIATE FUTURE

Committee Is Named To Investigate Matter—Organization Growing Rapidly Sees Need For Own Home.

The Mayesville Lodge of Eagles will probably purchase a home in the immediate future. Steps toward this direction were taken at a meeting of the organization last night when a committee was named to look into the matter and several proposed sites will probably be carefully investigated by this committee at once.

The local lodge of Eagles is one of the most rapidly growing organizations in the city and, in many respects they are outgrowing their present quarters. As the organization is in splendid financial condition, they have thought of owning their own home instead of renting property as they have done ever since the organization of the local lodge.

There are several splendid locations that are now available and should action along this line be taken, it is more than likely that it will be taken within a very short time.

SPEAKER FAILS TO ARRIVE.

Dr. Richards, who was to have spoken at the Third Street M. E. church last evening, for some unaccountable reason failed to arrive. As Dr. Johnson, the Cincinnati area secretary had sent word that he would be here the pastor and church are at a loss to know where the hitch in the arrangements was. However, Rev. Peters took charge of the service and gave a very helpful address on the Centenary movement.

MASON COUNTY MAY HAVE A COMPANY OF NATIONAL GUARDS

Adjutant General Says Opportunity Is Given Mason County for National Guard
Unit.

The editor has received this letter from Adjutant General Morris and if there are those who are interested in the organization of a Mason county unit, they should let it be known at once:

"At the beginning of the World War, the National Guard of Kentucky was called into the Federal service, and after the war was over it was mustered out, leaving the state with no National Guard troops.

"The Guard is now being reorganized and it is desired to have each year's increment distributed over the state as equally as possible.

"The national defense act provided that a committee be appointed to locate the units of the National Guard over the state. This committee has been appointed by the War Department and will meet sometime next month, and I am writing to ask if your county would like to be represented by a unit in the National Guard.

"Something like $10,000 each year of Federal funds are paid to members of each unit of the National Guard; besides being uniformed and equipped the officers and men are paid a full day's pay for each drill of one and one-half hours they attend.

"The recent reduction of the size of the Regular Army by Congress makes the National Guard a more important part of the country's defense, and it should be organized without delay.

"If you would like to have a unit organized in your county, please recommend suitable persons for officers after conferring with them, and advise this office, and all necessary information and assistance will be given toward getting an application from your county ready to be considered by the committee when it meets next month."

THEFTS NEAR GERMANTOWN SEND BOY TO REFORMATORY.

The Bracken County Review says: A young man, son of John Hughes, of Cincinnati, who was visiting Mr. Charles Lea, near Germantown, left Monday afternoon taking Mr. Lea's rifle and some money.

The sheriff was notified but up to date had not caught the fellow.

Adrian Hughes, 13 years of age, the young man of the above article was arrested by Marshal Ollie Case in Augusta, on grand larceny charge, brought to Brooksville and tried Wednesday morning before Judge Dodson. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to eight years in the Kentucky school of reform. Various other thefts have been charged to him.

FIRE AT SAUNDERS' HOME RESULTS IN $5,000 LOSS.

A loss estimated between $5,000 and $6,000, caused by damage of fire, smoke, water and chemicals, was caused when the residence of Mrs. U. G. Saunders, at Lexington, caught fire from chimney sparks Thursday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Two companies from the Central Fire Station responded to the call and quickly extinguished the flames.

Following the hung jury at Vanceburg in the Bertram murder case, the bond of Harvey Austin was reduced from $10,000 to $5,000, which was given and the defendant was released.

HICKS' FATHER IS RELEASED ON BOND

Fayette County Grand Jury Begins
Probe Into Escape of Convicts
From State Penitentiary.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 18. — With the arrest and arraignment of Jacob Hicks, Cynthiana farmer, father of Heber Hicks, one of the three men who escaped from the Frankfort penitentiary Monday morning, Fayette county officials Thursday afternoon began new efforts to shed light on the escape.

Hicks' father was arrested in Cynthiana Thursday morning on warrants sworn to by Warden W. H. Moyer of the penitentiary. The warrants were issued in Fayette county and charge him with aiding and abetting prisoners to escape. Following his arrest Hicks was given opportunity to confer with attorneys in Cynthiana, and shortly after noon was brought to Lexington by Deputy Sheriff W. G. McKee.

He waived examining trial and was held to the grand jury under $2,000 bond. His bond was signed by H. G. Hatterick, George Perrant and Charles E. and K. V. Hicks, all of Harrison county.

USED STOVE WOOD ON HER, SAYS WIFE.

Fear is expressed in the petition which Nellie Keet has filed in the Common Pleas Court, at Georgetown, Ohio, seeking divorce from Harvey Keet. The petition further asks that he be restrained from disposing of the personal effects they have. She alleges extreme cruelty, stating he had beaten and whipped her until she has become cowed. Alleging that although he is a man six-feet-three in height, weighing 200 pounds, he at one time hit her with a stick of cord wood and at another, blackened her eye and threatened to kill her. They were married in Mayesville, June 10, 1914, at the time she being fifteen years of age. They have three living children, the mother and children being brought before the Probate Court for care Monday.

CARUSO BETTER.

New York, Feb. 18. — Enrico Caruso has improved so greatly a relapse now probably would not cause immediate death, Dr. Francis J. Murray said today.

"Caruso is much brighter," the physician said. "His temperature has gone down and he is stronger than at any time since his collapse. "We cannot say what the danger of a relapse is, but, if he should suffer one, probably it would not be fatal immediately."

HATFIELD ADMITS HE KILLED THREE.

Williamson, W. Va., Feb. 18. — Sid Hatfield, Matewan chief of police, told Harry Staton, a former justice of the peace, that he had killed three of the Baldwin-Felts men in the pistol and rifle fight of May 19. Mr. Staton testified to this in Circuit Court here today, at the trial of 19 men, including Sid Hatfield, charged with being implicated in the fight.

TEST SUIT FILED TO SETTLE RIPLEY LOAN CO. CASE

Crash of People's Building and Loan Association at Ripley To Be Tried Out In Ohio Courts.

Action has been instituted in the Common Pleas Court at Georgetown, Ohio, by Chambers Baird, receiver for the People's Building & Loan Company, of Ripley, in which judgment is sought against W. A. and Ida Williamson in the sum of $950, with 6 per cent. interest from March 3, 1911, upon a mortgage lien given upon a 45-acre tract of land situated in Lewis township.

This action is one growing out of the settlement of the financial difficulties of the company which seeks to fix the status of the many shareholders of said company. These actions are to be classified and it is stated that five such actions will be heard to cover the legal phases which will concern those involved.

In this action the Citizens National Bank is made party defendant, the mortgage note in question having been left with this bank by L. V. Williams, secretary of the company, as security upon a loan secured.

The petition filed pleads that the Citizens Bank be required to set forth the nature and conditions of its claims and lien upon said mortgage note in its possession.

It is further claimed that the defendants, W. A. and Ida Williamson, will seek to prove in the hearing that they have made settlement with said company for the amount involved. Other actions thus involved, will be governed and decided upon in this decision in this action.

Mr. Arthur Hicks, of Clairton, Pa., is here for a visit with his mother and his little daughter.

POLICE DOGS USED IN SEARCH OF MURDERERS

Degenerate Supposed to Have Killed
Both Murdered Teachers
Near Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 18. — A heavy club, on which were matted strands of the light hair of Miss Mabel Foote, teacher at the Parma High School, and the dark hair of Miss Louise Wolf, principal, found on the lonely road where the two women were beaten to death yesterday, has led to the belief that the double murder was committed by a single degenerate, who wielded the club first on one and then on the other.

Search for the slayer was resumed at daybreak by officers and a posse of more than 100 farmers armed with shotguns and pistols. Two German police dogs have been brought to the scene in an effort to pick up the trail.

WILL BE RETURNED TO NAVY OFFICE.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort has been ordered by the U. S. Naval authorities to deliver Fred Tolle, arrested here yesterday, to the Naval station at Cincinnati. The chief will deliver the young man tomorrow.

CAPTAIN FELL DEAD.

Gallipoli, Ohio, Feb. 18. — Capt. David M. Hartley, 67, veteran riverman, fell dead at Racine today. He captained boats plying between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for many years.

Mr. M. O. Winter's touring car was damaged this morning when it went over an embankment on the Germantown road. Mr. Winter had left the car on the roadside and the brakes gave way allowing the car to roll down the road and over the bank.

Mr. J. E. Browning, of Flemingsburg, arrived this morning to spend the day with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. G. C. Browning of East Second street.

MANY SIN PLEDGE FOR INDEPENDENT CHAUTAUQUA HERE

Prospects for an Independent Chautauqua in Mayesville This Spring Are Encouraging—Many Pledge for 10 Tickets.

Indications today are that it will be only a couple of days until 800 two dollar season tickets for an Independent Chautauqua will be pledged and a committee will be chosen to select the talent and make all arrangements with the Co-Operative Chautauquas for the local entertainment.

Already some twenty local business men have pledged to sell ten tickets each. This is the only sort of guarantee that is required by the agency booking the talent. No cash guarantee is required and no one person is asked to pledge for the sale of more than ten season tickets. Those business men who pledge for the sale of ten tickets will constitute the chautauqua committee and these men will select a managing committee to select the talent and arrange the program for the season.

Under this contract the season will consist of eight days instead of seven or six days as past chautauqua contracts have been. The two dollar charge for the season ticket includes the war tax and inasmuch as nearly 400 season tickets were pledged last year for a 1921 chautauqua at three dollars, it is thought that there will be little trouble in pledging the required number for the Independent chautauqua.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And to oppose to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of
of the County as a whole.

ADEQUATE PRODUCTION THROUGH ADEQUATE PROTECTION.

With encouraging optimism, and altogether commendable, business men throughout the country hold to the hope that the barometer of business registration has touched bottom. Indeed, that it is already indicating recovery and a rising disposition. That is excellent and conduces to enthusiasm. But all with one accord agree that production is still in need of stimulant and that measures must be taken to stabilize prices, and that too on a level with a living wage. Readjustment without revolution to the breaking point at any part of the line is the desirable desideratum. This is very much in keeping with the recent size-up of this and all other economic situations by Charles Evans Hughes, certainly an authority to be given most respectful hearing just now. For that reason his utterance is repeated herewith:

There are certain primary truths which must constantly be kept before our people. The ultimate economic gain must be found in production and thrift. The world waits for increased productivity. We enjoy a prosperity beyond anything hitherto known, if only we will work and save. Agitation that curtails production helps no one, least of all the workers. For every wage increase, for every improvement in conditions of labor, for every protection against sickness, old age and death, for every betterment in civic facilities, for the care of the weak and helpless, for all the helpful ministrations we desire to multiply we must look to production to pay the bill.

Primarily that means production as the initial step in thrift. It stops leaks, prevents wastage of time and talent, raw material and the wear and tear of machinery. But labor must be given occupation as opportunity and incentive to production. Mines and mills must be opened, not closed. Just now we are told there are approximately 3,500,000 involuntarily idle workmen in the United States. Of course that is an enormous economic loss to the country as well as a clamorous deprivation to the men. Now there is always possibility of running into paternalism by invoking legislation in relief of industrial conditions. But on the other hand there is legislation that is perfectly legitimate and altogether germane to just this situation.

This present session of Congress bids fair to die and leave its legacy of tariff readjustment to its successor. Perhaps that is just as well. The job will be better done, no doubt, more deliberately and more permanently. But it is just as well also that they begin thinking about it and taking preliminary steps in formulating plans and specifications. It is rather pertinently presented to our attention that in well authenticated instances our idleness is result of cheap foreign industry. It can be demonstrated that in the cases of present conditions industrially the very workmen who are now idle are obliged, if they have laid by enough to tide them over, to hire foreign workers to do the work which they themselves should do. When any one buys a foreign competing product he is hiring foreign workmen to produce the product and condemning the American workmen to idleness.

Production is a question of employment functioning honestly and efficiently in return for adequate pay. This is only possible when our industrial output has proper protection. The remedy for present conditions lies ultimately—also immediately—with Congress. The enactment of adequate tariff revision will logically tend to a reopening of the mills and mines and to the encouragement of all industry, including agriculture, which is just now heavily handicapped.

IT'S AN ODD OLD WORLD, AT THAT.

Queer things happen in this good old word—queer anyway to us civilized, intelligent Americans.

The other day in Bombay, India, two mischievous English boys killed a pigeon in the street. The pigeon is a sacred bird in India and there was a riot immediately. The police stepped in but that was not the end. The next day there was a great religious strike and all shops, stores and the stock exchange had to close their doors.

In Egypt a native from the country districts came to town on his camel. A young American woman—a winter tourist—was walking past when the country Egyptian carefully leaned down from his high position and spat in her face. Asked why, he said she was a dog of a Christian and was walking the street unveiled.

Defeated Germany roars about paying a fifty-three billion dollar indemnity for the destruction she wrought in other lands and it is only three years since her kaiser told the Berlin parliament that Germany would demand a hundred billions from the allies if she won. And this with no destruction on her own soil.

Last year when we were paying 25 to 30 cents a pound for sugar, the sugar plantation laborers in Hawaii were drawing 276 per cent-bonus on their wages.

Russian workmen helped the Bolsheviks conquer their country and now they are not allowed even the liberty to strike.

We could go on without end telling of queer things in the world but they would take up the whole paper.

MENDING PLYMOUTH ROCK.

The sculptor, Cyrus Dallin, commissioned to report on the best way of binding together the three fragments of Plymouth Rock, says that he believes such methods as modern operative dentistry employs will restore the famous boulder to its pristine appearance and condition. The tribe of ouvenir hunters has been responsible for lesser mutilations; but frost and the sea did most of the damage. The repairs will assure to remote posterity the integrity of the stone which shares with Jacob's Stone, in the coronation chair of England, the distinction of being the most famous rock of Anglo-Saxondom.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

With the convening of Parliament, Premier Lloyd George finds himself facing another crisis in his Ministerial career, but crises are nothing new in this doughty little Welshman's stormy political life.

UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES.

Republican Congress Proves Desire To Save.

"Uncle Ted," said Jack, who had just come in from a visit to Johnny Jones' house, "won't you tell me some more about our army. You remember you told us a story about it not long ago."

"Sure, Jack," replied Uncle Ted. "There's a good story about it, too. You see when Congress passed the law to cut the army in size, President Wilson refused to sign it. In other words, as I have explained to you before, he vetoed the bill. It went back to the House of Representatives first and it was passed there over his veto by a vote of 271 to 16."

"But his biggest defeat and the thing that proves how Congress is thinking hard on economy these days was the vote in the Senate on this bill. ONLY ONE MAN VOTED TO UPHOLD THE VETO. He was Senator Kirby, a Democrat from Arkansas. As far as I can find out, this is the first time any President's veto has been overridden with almost unanimous vote. Sixty-seven Senators voted for the bill and, as I say, only ONE against. Nowhere in the country is there any support for the President's position in this matter and certainly no President was ever more 'out of tune' with the people on real domestic questions of importance."

"How big will the army be now?" asked Jack.

"The bill reduces the army from 250,000 to 175,000. While that is important in itself, it is far more important because it shows that Congress is actually accomplishing something to help reduce our high taxes and demonstrate that economy will take the place of the wanton waste and extravagance that we have had for the past eight years. Why should we have such a big army now anyway? Just look at the thousands of ex-service men in the country today who, if an emergency arose, could quickly take their places as trained fighters."

"Why didn't the President think of that?" asked Jack.

"Simply because his argument was an echo of the argument from Secretary Baker, who, in turn, simply an echo of the general staff of the army. And certainly the general staff wants a big army. The bigger the better for them. But Congress reflecting the feeling of the people of the whole country did not look at it from the same light. They realized that such a big army is not necessary, first of all because we have plenty of trained men at present as a result of the war. And then, too, they realize that most of all, it is time that we start cutting down the expenses of the government which have been so tremendous."

"You see President Wilson bases all his arguments on questions of this kind on his one-tracked idea of a league of nations and what he thinks will happen to this country if we don't join. Don't think for a minute that the few friends of the world club plan have given up all hope of getting the United States mixed up in it. President Wilson has been telling us ever since he brought the peace treaty back with the world club in it, that the world would come to an end; if the United States didn't agree to that treaty and join the club."

"Well, it hasn't," spoke up Jack.

"No, far from it, Jack," said his Uncle. "The world has shown a steady well founded recovery from the war. Each and every country with few exceptions is gradually getting back to the same status as before the war. America has not only shown that she has rapidly recovered, but she is in a stronger position than ever before. We have the money, and the world trade is at our door if we get busy and listen to the knock of opportunity, and we are more respected by Europe than ever."

"Why more respected, Uncle Ted?" asked Jack. "I don't understand."

"Why Jack, we are more respected by other countries and in a much more powerful position today because we have shown that we are independent. We are independent in that we have told the whole world that we will not under any circumstances sell our liberty to a group of men representing a combination of countries that would love to get us 'down'."

"Yes, indeed, Jack. Countries after all are simply bodies of people and almost the same rules apply in both cases. If I give in to Sam Smith at my office about some matter of importance to us both but which is unfair to me, then he knows that I am weak and 'easy.' But if I stand up

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Maysville resident has withstood this sternest of all tests. Mrs. M. Holliday, 221 East Second street, Maysville, says: "I have been greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills and I have reason to recommend them. At times my back has become lame and ached just over my kidneys. My kidneys were irregular in action and I was dizzy. When ever I have used Doan's Kidney Pills I always get relief from these complaints. I certainly think them a good reliable remedy. I always get Doan's at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

The above statement was given November 16, 1916, and on November 22, 1920, Mrs. Holliday said: "I am glad to say my kidneys have given me no trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills four years ago. My general health has been good. I gladly renew the statement I gave recommending Doan's at that time."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Holliday had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

and tell him that I am the best judge of what is good for me and that I have always managed to do pretty well in the past, he won't hold that against me. At least not when he thinks of it to himself."

"Why?" asked Jack.

"Because, Jack, he respects me for my determination to keep my individuality and independence. No man admires another man who is weak. No country admires another country that is weak. We are NOT WEAK because we have kept and WILL KEEP our independence which we fought hard to obtain in 1776. It came too hard and the government the fathers founded was too good to toss in the ocean for a scrap of paper."

REPORTS ON NON-RESPECTABLE DISEASES.

An increase of about 30 per cent. in cases of venereal disease reported from all states except Nevada and the District of Columbia is shown in reports to the U. S. Public Health Service for the three months ending September 30. Seven states have laws requiring physicians to report all such cases with the names of the patient; and nearly all the other states require them to be reported without the names. The sudden jump in the number reported probably means not that the diseases have increased but that more physicians are obeying the law. Curiously enough, the reports indicate that physicians in western states are far more law abiding than those in the east. Massachusetts, for instance, with a population of 2,850,000 reports a good deal less than 3,000 cases, while Texas, with a population only one-fifth larger, reports more than 15,000 cases. Other western and eastern states show similar relations.

At Opera House Tuesday, Feb. 22

Come out Washington's Birthday, February 22nd, at 8:15, at Washington Opera House and hear over 100 of Maysville Boys and Girls in a delightful musical concert, consisting of Band Music, both Junior and Senior Bands, Vocal Duets, Choruses, Costume Songs, Instrumental Solos and Duets, and Costume Dancing Between curtains. Maysville was recently characterized in a celebrated musical magazine as a "Musical Town." Come out Washington's Birthday Day Evening and hear those High School Boys and Girls show you in how many different ways they can render popular and classic music. This is the first time the Maysville public has ever had the opportunity of hearing what is being taught its sons and daughters in both Instrumental and Vocal Music. Buy your tickets of the children and get same reserved at Shafer & Watkins' Monday. Proceeds go for the Music department of High School and "Red Coats and White Pants" for the Senior Band.

New York Letter

New York. — "What's all this fuss about? Babies are just like each other," protested Josephine Vascoli, eight years old, when arrested for carrying away a baby that she thought belonged to her sister. It took police reserves to disperse the jam of women attracted by the screams of the hysterical mother.

Onlookers got considerable amusement when Jacob Erlichman lit into William Robinson, but it was no joke for either Jacob or William. Robinson is six feet four and this assailant is four feet six, but the damage done to the big fellow was sufficient to have Erlichman taken to the police court and fined $10 for disorderly conduct.

Clare Eames, niece of Emma Eames, the famous concert singer, has been chosen to create the title role in John Dinkwater's new historical play, "Mary Queen of Scots." This will be Miss Eames' first lead part. She has been playing this season in "The Prince and the Pauper" and last year with Ethel Barrymore in "De-classe."

When one of the tenants in a Bronx apartment house, had accomplished no results in court by explaining how cold he and his family had been in the low degree of temperature given them by the landlord, he cited a proof of his contention of insufficient heat, that his goldfish had to live under a quarter of an inch of ice. That was too much for even the calloused judge, and the landlord was fined $150.

"The silent struggle" it is called by the women at the head of it, and that's just what it is. Think of a fund drive having already been in progress for more than two weeks and not yet one blast of the trumpet! The Young Women's Christian Association is doing it; raising its money for the coming year in silence. "Last year, we did everything under the broad blue sky to let people know about us and our work and the money we needed and why we needed it," said Mrs. George B. Ford, Maintenance Committee Chairman, the other day. "Not a person in the country escaped our story. Black and white, centenarians and babes in perambulators, they all were told. Now we are trusting to their remembering. The only people in the country who won't know about it, are the new flock of perambulator babies. And they will have to be left in ignorance this once. We have definitely decided to raise this one fund without a 'drive'." So not a poster has been printed, not a clarion call gone forth in any form, not even in New York City, which alone has a quota of $600,000. By the last day of this shortest month, the committee is hoping to have the money in, counted, and allotted to summer camps, classes, employment bureaus, association homes and whatever other of their functions need it most.

Occidentals may not be clear as to the differences between the Chinese and Japanese, especially if they are nicely made up. But they can't fool each other. Forty Japanese moving picture people had this impressed upon the other day with sufficient emphasis to last for quite a while. The picture company was after a good old fashioned Chinese melodrama and thought they might as well take advantage of the trappings down in Chinatown marking the celebration of the ushering in of their 4608. Half a dozen American screen actresses, some Italian bands and hurdy-gurdy players and the 40 Chinese costumes, began violently pulling the American actresses into dark hallways, flashing daggers, and generally conducting themselves as Chinese do in American melodramas. It took the American Chinese of Chinatown just five minutes to put the Japanese Chinese to rout toward Williamsburg bridge, using American milk bottles for their weapons. It is bad enough to be pictured in such a way, but to have the Japanese of all people—come into their own balliwick to do the picturing was too much even for the gentle Chinese.

When a Norwegian liner came into dock the other day, Prohibition Inspector Long and his squad informed the passengers that they were to be searched for liquor. The passengers laughed. But the searching began. Three quarts were found on the first man. At that, one-fourth of the men just about to land, retreated up to the deck again, and started in to get what good they could out of their baggage before they, too, were searched. With bottles held high, it was all gurgled away in the view of thirsty hundreds on the dock below.

TO KEEP A TROOP GOING.

"I have a question, too, Mr. Cave Scout. This seems about the hardest time in the whole year to keep things going in our troop. There is little doing besides regular meetings and the members seem to lose their pep. What can we do about it?"

"Can anybody help out in this case?" "I believe I can, Cave Scout. We had the same trouble in our Troop until last winter, when we arranged a Scout dinner and invited our Dads and Mothers. The Ladies' Aid Society let us use the kitchen and dishes in the church and a couple of the boys' mothers helped up plan things, but we set the tables, cooked the meal and served it ourselves. After the dinner we initiated three Tenderfoots and the Court of Honor presented badges to First and Second Class Scouts. That gave our folks a pretty good idea about what we do in Scouting. We also had a few demonstrations in Scoutcraft and the whole affair was a big success."

"This year we will hold our dinner on Washington's birthday. We began planning for it in December and the boys are working their heads off to make a good showing. In addition to the stunts we had last year we are planning a Scout exhibit. One of the members has a fine collection of butterfly flies, another a collection of samples of wood that grows in this locality, another a collection of birds' nests, another a fine group of wild animal and bird photographs, and so on. We will also show samples of handicraft, such as model airplanes, furniture, toys, useful household articles, etc., all made by members of the Troop. We are having no trouble with attendance and are getting some mighty good work done." — The Cave Scout in Boys' Life.

Libraries in Public Health Service Hospitals

The fact that the sundry civil appropriation bill, reported to the House of Representatives, appropriates $100,000 for the purchase of library books, magazines, and papers for beneficiaries of war risk insurance will be welcome news to military patients in Public Health Service Hospitals. The American Library Association, which still administers the libraries in the larger hospitals, is embarrassed financially and has to be assisted by other organizations. The Public Health Service had no appropriation which it could use for the purpose. The new appropriation saves the situation; but, unless it is made available immediately instead of not until July 1, as is customary, erasing matter will necessarily be at a premium in all hospitals caring for soldier patients.

MENTAL PATIENTS IN PUBLIC SERVICE HOSPITALS.

Washington. — The congestion in the neuro-psychiatric hospitals of the U. S. Public Health Service throughout the country has been brought out by the necessity of transferring thirty military patients from the big service hospital on Grays Ferry Road, Philadelphia, to make room for other patients who had greater claims on its facilities. By the time the transfer could be carried out the hospital was again crowded to capacity. The service is now caring for 5910 neuro-psychiatric patients, and the number is steadily increasing. Search is being continually made by official and non-official organizations for buildings that might be leased by the service for hospitals. Such, however, have proved to be few and far between, and the necessity of building those needed is daily becoming more and more apparent.

It is the policy of the Public Health Service to provide for all neuro-psychiatric patients, in its own hospitals instead of in contract hospitals; but until proper buildings can be had this is impossible.

YOUTH AND LIFE.

"Youth and Life," the new exhibit of the U. S. Public Health Service, consists of 24 attractively illustrated cards, measuring 28x22 inches each. The exhibit, which is especially addressed to young women, is an appeal for physical fitness as the best aid to fulfilling the duties and enjoying the pleasures of life. The value of hygienic living and the need for plenty of exercise, fresh air, sleep, and proper food are emphasized. The function of the glands of the body, including the sex glands, are shown. Human reproduction is approached through a brief presentation of reproduction in plants and animals; and attention is called to the probable effects of sex misconduct (venereal diseases).

Womanliness, motherhood, and home-making are extolled. This exhibit may be borrowed for special work from State Boards of Health or be purchased through the American Social Hygiene Association, New York City.

SCHOOL TEACHERS MURDERED WITH CLUBS.

Cleveland, Feb. 17. — Cleveland detectives and posses of citizens searched the countryside today for two men in connection with the slaying of Miss Louise Wolf, 38, and Miss Mabel Foot, 24, school teachers. The women were beaten to death with a fence rail. The bodies were discovered today by school children on Dean road, about three miles from Cleveland. The heads of the women had been crushed. A blood-stained club was found near the bodies.

Milford, Ohio. — Open statement is made that Mrs. Dolly Spencer will be the uncontested candidate for mayor, and while she will be the first woman course, I am very proud of such an honor, and if I were elected I should

WATER FRANCHISE PLACED ON MARKET IN HAZARD.

Hazard, Ky., Feb. 18. — Because the present company, of which W. O.
Davis is president, has failed to supply residents of this city with sufficient pure water, the city council has approved officially an ordinance placing the water franchise for Hazard on the market. It will be sold at public auction.

The present company obtained a 20 year franchise in 1910. It fills its mains from the river.

TELLS HOW NEW

REMEDY DID IT

"My husband suffered from catarrh and Hay Fever. He was weak and run-down, though he did not give up work. He would lay awake for hours nights. His appetite was poor too, so I asked a drug clerk about it one day and he recommended Earle's Hypo-Cod so highly I got a bottle. We saw it advertised too.

"Today his appetite is much better.
He grew stronger and better in every way, and best of all, I believe he'll never have any more catarrh. It is curing him fast. A neighbor of ours says she was cured completely with Hypo-Cod and she claimed to have had catarrh real bad," declares Mrs.

Frank T. Judson, of Worthing, Ohio, (Suburb of Columbus) in a glowing tribute to this remarkable new tonic.
Earle's Hypo-Cod is a nice tasting combination of Hypophosphites, Malt, Iron, Wild Cherry Bark and soluble extractive of Cod Liver Oil. It is a more modern, powerful preparation accomplishing its work much quicker.
How nicely it tones up the system is proven easily by taking a bottle or two. The cost is trifling, and now is the season to take it. All druggists have the genuine Earle's Hypo-Cod in the famous Orange Colored carton.
